CAMP PURPOSE

Physical, Mental, Spiritual

TUFF Camps were started in 1990 with the purpose of exposing high school athletes to the broad spectrum of training necessary to maximize their performance.

Training in 3-D is what TUFF Camps are all about. The camp staff are committed to helping each participant grow in three areas that affect an athlete's performance: the physical, the mental, and the spiritual.

ATHLETES IN ACTION

Reach the world for Jesus Christ

Since 1966, Athletes in Action has been using sports as a platform to help people answer questions of faith and to point them to Jesus. AIA is constantly working to create new ways of reaching out to athletes and sports fans alike. Our goal is to see peoples' lives changed as they discover God's purpose for their life.

AIA provides chaplains to some of the world's most influential sports teams, and send teams of athletes, coaches, and trainers to serve other athletes and communities around the world.

Countless volunteers, thousands of athletes, and more than 500 staff members comprise AIA's presence in 65 countries, on over 195 U.S. college campuses, and on 35 U.S. professional sports teams.

For more information about AIA or TUFF, contact AIA Track and Field at (937) 352-1260 or visit www.goaia.org/track/event/tuff

MICHIGAN TRADITION

Athletes in Action is excited about TUFF Camp's 30th summer! TUFF Michigan covers the latest fundamentals of cross-country running. Hope College is our host, providing excellent facilities, the beautiful surroundings of West Michigan, and great training conditions. Your week will be filled with focused training, cutting edge information, and lots of fun.

TUFF Michigan features a highly qualified staff of coaches and athletes from around the country. Our experienced staff specializes in working with athletes and training them in 3-D.

Over the years, TUFF Camp has helped hundreds of athletes reach their goals of being All-State and All-Conference by showing them how to train physically, mentally, and spiritually. Come and join this elite group!
